

Koshi's Book Report

Kensuke's Kingdom

By Michael Morpurgo

Kensuke's Kingdom is about a boy named Michael who goes on a trip around the world on a sailing boat  with his mother, father and dog called Stella. He falls overboard because a wave swept him off while he was trying to stop Stella from barking. An old man named Kensuke rescue's Michael, Stella and his football. The story is about how Stella and Michael live with Kensuke. They become friends and love each other. This book is really good because there is a lot of action: fishing, poisonous jellyfish, hunters and howling monkeys.

This book taught me how to make fire with glass. It also made me want to wear a lifejacket all of the time. I learned that you can always help someone even if you don't like them. I also learned that you don't have to talk to be friends. You can just help each other.

Kensuke's Kingdom is a great book. I really liked it because there are a lot of animals in it and I like animals. My favourite character was Stella Artois.  I like Stella because she liked Kensuke from the start. She sat around him and would not leave right away. I would give this book 10 Red Bananas out of 10. I would recommend this book for kids ages 8 and over.

