

The Silver Donkey

The Silver Donkey is a book about a soldier who does not want to fight anymore and wants to go home.

The soldier's name is Lieutenant Shepard and he walks away from No Mans Land after a battle until he reaches the sea.

In the woods he becomes blind, but probably because of all the horrible & yucky things he has seen, not really blind.

He is found by two girls who try to help him get home, and who bring him food.

By the end the soldier's sight comes back and he finds his way back home.

The reason the book is called the Silver Donkey is because the soldier's good luck charm is a small silver donkey given to him by his sick brother.

During his time in the woods he tells the kids stories about donkeys, that teach the kids interesting things.

I would give this book 8/10 because it was interesting and told about war. It was a bit hard to follow when the kids daydream while the soldiers speaking.
