Charmed Life

I thought "Charmed Life" was a great book.
My favourite character was Janet. I would be terrified if my brother/best friend was just about to get his/her head chopped off. I also like Gwendolen. I liked how she was very secretive, and disobedient, and I would love to be queen. I would rate this book a 10/10. I thought that when I got to at least Chapter 5, I couldn't put the book down. I found it very interesting. I liked Mr. Saunderson's dragon, and thought Fiddle sounded extremely cute. I didn't like Will Suggins, The Willing Warlock, Miss Larkins, Mr. Baslam, and the Nostrum brothers. I thought they were rude and mean. I can't believe they were about to chop Cat's head off. Cat was extremely brave about it. Even when all the witches and warlocks were coming, he still tried to unchain Chrestomanci. And not letting Gwendolen use his powers were unbelievable. I thought she was a great witch. I'm glad this was our bookclub book. I enjoyed it a lot.
