

From the Mixed-up Files of Mrs. Basil E. Frankweiler by E.L. Konigsburg is a book about Claudia and her younger brother Jamie who decide to run away and live in the Metropolitan Museum of Art. They sleep in a bed at the museum, take baths in a fountain, hide in the bathroom stalls and join school groups during the day. While they are there a mysterious statue of an angel goes on exhibit. Claudia and Jamie try to discover if it was really carved by Michelangelo. So they go to see Mrs. Basil E. Frankweiler. Mrs. Frankweiler was the one who sold the statue in an auction. While they are at her house Mrs. Frankweiler tells them they need to find the document in her files. When they find it they discover the angel was really sculpted by Michelangelo.

I give this book 10 angels out of 10. I really liked their adventure of living in a museum. I thought it was really cool how they lived in the museum without people finding them. Claudia was my favorite character because she was very determined to solve the mystery of angel. I recommend this book to people my age who like adventures.
