

Kendra Kandlestar and the Box of Whispers

By Lee Edward Födi

This book is about a brave Een girl named Kendra Kandlestar who is eleven years old. She lives with her Uncle Griffinskitch in the town of Faun's End. Een's are magical creatures who live behind the magic curtain which keeps out their enemies.

In the beginning of the book, the Een's greatest treasure "The Box of Whispers" gets stolen. An unusual group of 5 characters are sent out to find the box and Kendra and her best friend Oki somehow get included in the group. To find the box they must go on a journey outside the magic curtain.

During the journey Kendra and the group come across many strange places and creatures. At one point, Kendra finds a young Unger, the sworn enemy of the Een's, hanging from a cliff. She instinctively decides to save the Unger but in doing so she breaks an important law of the Een's which if she tells will cause her to be banished from the Land of Een. Kendra decides not to tell anyone but it is very hard for her to keep the secret because it haunts her.

The group arrives at the castle where they believe the box of whispers will be and find a dragon who feeds on fear. Kendra defeats this dragon by facing her fear and telling her secret. Then she and Oki bravely find a way to open the box of secrets and save the others and the land of Een.

I liked this book because it has lots of adventure and it kept me involved. I didn't want to stop reading. I would give this book 10 giant carrots out of 10! I would recommend it to anyone 7 and over because my mom liked it too.
