

Shu-Li and Diego

by Paul Yee

My favorite character in the book was Baxter, because he reminds me of my old dog Merlin. Merlin escaped just like Baxter. When we took off Merlin's leash, he would run around and get into trouble just like Baxter. Shu-Li's mom and dad remind me of my mom and dad, because they are so worried about me and my brother all the time (especially my mom – because she's so cautious). Shu-Li reminds me of my brother especially when she was trying to convince her mother to let her take care of Baxter for Mr. Simpson. She also reminded me of my brother when she took off to the Hospital with Diego and Baxter without telling her parents.
