I really liked this book because it was very interesting. My favourite part of the story was that Jack's stomach talks to him. I thought that was funny. I thought it was good that Jack's stomach told him to run away from the bookkeeping job and to have adventures instead.

I like Jack because he has a good imagination. But my favourite character is Lou because she is nice to Jack and helps him find a job at the fair.

The ending shows that Jack would rather keep travelling and having adventures than staying in one town, even if he could live with nice people. This isn't what I would choose.

I recommend this book to anybody who likes adventure stories and people who like to play with words. I would give this book a 9/10.
