

More Favourite Animal Tales by Jill Tomlinson

I read the story 'The Gorilla Who Wanted to Grow Up' with my mom.

There were some parts I liked. I liked when Pongo's baby sister Whoopsie was born. She was so cute. I also liked when Pongo had to rescue Whoopsie on the log across the stream. Because I like adventure in stories.

Mostly I thought this book did not have enough adventure for me. I thought it was a little bit boring, sorry.

Maybe we should have read the other stories?

Maybe there was more action in those ones?
