

Professional Development Day

Workshop

April 30, 2009

Linking Sophisticated Picture Books Around
Themes of Social Responsibility

$45

6:30 - 9:30pm

(Aimed at Primary and Intermediate Teachers)

Participants of this workshop can expect to be presented with some of the best in children's literature. Christianne will pay special attention to books that nurtures reflective thinking and respectful actions.

She will highlight the process of linking books through a variety of sub-themes such as:

- "little people make big changes"
- "don't be furious, be curious"
- "what goes around comes around"
- "some rules need to be broken for the right reasons"
- "conservation is a global responsibility"

Expect to see some familiar favourites alongside an exciting collection of brand new material!

Registration

To register for this workshop, please call or email us. Participants will receive a certificate to recognize their attendance at a Professional Development Event.

*Tea, coffee and book viewing at 6:00 pm.
A light dinner will be served at 6:30 pm followed immediately by the workshop presentation.*
